

Training Partners

The following courses can be used to complete the Comprehensive Course pathway to sit for the CLC exam:

Healthy Children’s Lactation Counselor Training Course

<http://www.healthychildren.cc/clc.htm>

To become a training partner your course must meet the following requirements:

1. A minimum of 52 contact hours
2. Must be accredited by the following four standard setting agencies for continuing education:
 - a. The American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation
 - b. The Commission on Dietetic Registration
 - c. The American College of Nurse Midwives
 - d. The International Board of Lactation Consultant Examiners
3. Cover the content and objectives of the WHO “40 Hour Course”
4. Course designed and taught by lead faculty who maintain clinical practice and have published peer-reviewed articles
5. Approved for a minimum of 3 college credit hours at a University that is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission or equivalent

For more information on becoming a training partner please email info@alpp.org